

The Herbaceous Perennials of Southeast MO Hospital

A Landscape Designed by SWT Design

Anemone `September Charm` (anemone)
Aster novae-angliae (New England aster)[GN]
Asclepias tuberosa (butterfly milkweed)[GN]
Calamagrostis `Karl Foerster` (feather reed grass)
Coreopsis v. `Golden Gain` (tickseed)
Coreopsis lanceolata (lanceleaf coreopsis) [GN]
Echinacea purpurea `Kim's Knee High`
(dwarf purple coneflower)
Heuchera m. `Palace Purple` (coral bells)
Liatris spicata `Kobold` (blazing star)
Liriope spicata (creeping lily-turf)
Nepeta x f. `Walker's Low` (catmint)
Pennisetum `Hameln` (dwarf fountain grass)
Perovskia atriplicifolia (Russian sage)[POM]
Perovskia atriplicifolia `Little Spire` (Russian sage)
Ratibida pinnata (yellow coneflower) [GN]
Rudbeckia missouriensis (Missouri coneflower)[GN]
Schizachyrium scoparium (little bluestem) [GN]
Sporobolus heterolepis (prairie dropseed) [GN][POM]

GN = Grow Native! - a Missouri native plant.
(for more, visit: grownative.org)

POM = Plant of Merit – outstanding plant dependable for the lower Midwest.
(for more, visit: plantsofmerit.org)

For more about all of the plants, visit:
MBGplantfinder.or